

INTUIT Business Travel Safety PROTECTING WHAT MATTERS MOST

We live in an increasingly uncertain world and the health, safety and wellbeing of all our business travelers is our priority. To ensure that we keep our people safe we are making some changes to our security information and assistance service.

WHAT IS HAPPENING?

We are changing our travel security information provider to Anvil Group to deliver an improved technology-led travel risk service.

WHEN WILL IT START?

The new service from Anvil will launch on August 1, 2023 and is available to all business travelers.

WHAT DO I NEED TO DO?

Make sure your contact details are up-to-date when booking travel, so we can support you during an emergency. As soon as your trip is booked, ensure you read the risk briefing that will be emailed to you.

WHAT HELP IS AVAILABLE TO ME?

You also have access to 24/7 medical and security advice and assistance. In the event of an emergency or incident at your location, don't hesitate to call +44 (0) 203 325 5111 & +1 650 228 0596 for immediate help. Or for non-urgent support, email: anvil\_intuitsupport@everbridge.com

WHAT WILL THIS MEAN TO ME?

You will receive specific and relevant travel safety insight about your trips and receive tailored notifications and alerts so you have the right information to be able to deal with any unexpected issues.

For further information, speak to a member of your local Security or Travel team or email your enquiry to anvil\_intuitsupport@everbridge.com.
